CORAM : Smt. Vasanti A. Naik, J.
DATE : 17th September, 2007

By this civil application, the applicant seeks condonation of delay of 248 days in filing the application for restoration of the appeal.

The appeal came to be dismissed for not filing the private paper book within the time stipulated by this Court.

The prayer made in the civil application is not seriously objected to, by the counsel for the non-applicants.

Hence, for the reasons stated in the civil application, the civil application is allowed and disposed of.

M.C.A. St. No. 14682/2007

Heard the learned counsel for the parties.

For the reasons stated in the application, the appeal is restored to file.

M.C.A. is allowed and disposed of.

The counsel for the appellant submitted that three land acquisition cases were decided by leading a common evidence. The appellant has preferred First Appeal No. 119/2002 in one of the three connected matters and the appellant would be filing the private paper book in First Appeal No. 119/2002.

In view of the aforesaid position, it would not be necessary to file separate private paper book in the three cases which were consolidated in the trial Court.

Filing of the private paper book in this matter is, therefore, disposed with. The decree form may be filed in the Court within a period of one week from today.
